GENERAL REGULATION

1-4: The present regulations give to every exhibitor the rights and obligations of exhibitors towards AFIS, which can be downloaded from the AFIS website. Exhibitors must read and make suitable to each application, it is formulated in its practical and current provisions in this document as a reference.

1-1- Participation and admission Article 2-1:

2-1: Any participation in an event organized by the AFIS (organizer) requires an application for participation made by an individual or a corporation as represented by a person authorized to deal with the program.

2-2: Participation in events organized by the AFIS must be in accordance with the criteria for acceptance and selection set and approved by the organizer.

However, the application form is available by the organizer only if it is accompanied by:

- the concepts of the General Regulations as approved and agreed by the applicant; materializing his commitment to respect and comply with the legal effects of these regulations;
- a copy of the the applicant's identification number and an updated extract of the trade register;
- a payment proof on behalf of the organizer, a deposit of 40% of the rental price and required fees as mentioned on the application form provided by the organizer. (*)

1-1-1- Deposit Article 3-1: Terms and payments Article 3-1:

4-1: The deposit stipulated in Article 3-2 above will be refunded fully if the applicant is not admitted to participate and partially (50%) if included in the program of the exhibitor registered at least 20 days before the start of the event. Yet the deposit will be automatically accepted by AFIS if the withdrawal of the application occurs after the said period. However, the fee opening fee and registration fee set at $ 100 per stand is always required by the organizer whatever the outcome of the application.

4-2: The balance of the amount owed by the exhibitor is due on or before the position of the agreed location.

Both parties expressly agree that the total invoice amount (rent and charges) remains required for the organizer, even if the exhibitor is the subject of a suspension or closure under these general regulations (article below) or if the exhibitor willingly decides not to continue his participation. ()

1-1-2- Location Article 3-2:

5-1: The organizer establishes the exhibition plan based on available space and its sole discretion of applications; it exclusively allocates the locations to the exhibitors.

5-2: In the organization of the and the allocation of space, the organizer shall endeavor to take account of the wishes expressed by the exhibitors, for relative and the content of the articles or services they propose to exhibit, of the layout of the stand they plan to build, and as such, the organizer reserves the right to modify, whenever they deem it useful in the interests of the event, the layout of the area and the distribution of the stands, with or without prior notice, and each individual location would if it is required be used as an aisle for circulation for the exhibitor or as a means for organizing circulation of the money already deposited in respect of his participation.

5-3: It is expressly forbidden to assign, sublease or exchange, with or without consideration, all or part of the site allocated by the organizer, any duly recorded offense entails the forfeiture of any right to subsequent access to AFIS spaces. ()

1-1-3- Insurance of the stand Article 3-3:

6-1: The locations leased and allocated by the organizer are available to the exhibitor within the time previously set by the organizer and must be occupied, arranged, equipped and furnished by the exhibitor so late than 12 hours before the opening of the event. The stands must be well arranged, stocked and ready for visitors access to the date and time of opening, otherwise the exhibitor will incur a fine equivalent to 10% of the total rental amount.

1-1-4- Installation and dismantling arrangements Article 3-4:

7-1: Generally it is the organizer who pays for decorating the entire exhibition space and the exhibitors get the space assigned to them in the condition found; they will have to leave them in the same state; any damage will be evaluated and they will make up for it. However, any exhibitor who wishes to assemble and arrange a stand in this way, is required to make a written request to the organizer and comply, in case of a favorable reply, the special provisions of these General Regulations.

1-1-5- Direct sale Article 3-5:

8-1: The direct sale by producers to visitors is subject to authorization by the services of the Ministry of Trade and Crafts ()

1-1-6- Stand lighting and decorative supplies Article 3-6:

10-1: The organizer ensures basic adequate power supply to the needs of lighting the stand or space and that of decorative patterns and there is gas consistent with the maximum height.

10-2: For all other benefits such as a prime mover or its equipment, the exhibitor must submit a special request to the organizer who answers based on his sole discretion of the deliverability and feasibility, and in case of favorable reply, the costs of additional facilities, consumption and related taxes are charged extra on the bill of the exhibition.

10-3: 10-5 when the above-mentioned deadline, any delay in the removal of the products exhibited will give rise to storage costs, calculated from the expiry of the said period at the rate of 50$ per day of delay.

However, in case of force majeure, the exhibitor reserves the right to transport the objects on the exhibition space in a warehouse of his choice at the expense and risk of the exhibitor and without the organizer being liable for total or partial losses.

These costs should be invoiced in addition to the exhibitor concerned.

1-1-7- Stand equipment Article 3-7:

See Table below :

1-1-8- Insurance Article 3-8:

12-1: During the closing hours to the exhibitor and visitors the organizer provides a fire as agreed to the best of care, a guarding service and maintenance of exhibition spaces ()

1-1-9- Closing Article 3-9:

13-1: The appearance of the stands and related areas must remain impeccable throughout the event. To this end, the general maintenance of halls (stairs, corridors and open spaces) is provided by the care of the organizer as a collective responsibility and scheduling in due care appropriate; however, the total cleaning of the stand is the responsibility of the exhibitor who must ensure it himself or by a provider approved by the organizer, outside the opening hours of stand to visitors. ()

1-1-10- Insurance Article 3-10:

14-1: Exhibitors must comply with the provisions of Law No. 24-92 of 19 March 1992 on the enactment of the Insurance Code as amended, beyond the insurance inherent in its business and for the payment of a lump sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per stand, the organizer shall apply to exhibitors the following coverages:

- (X1) responsibility operating towards visitors and third parties, - fire insurance covering the exhibitor's products and goods within the limits of available stand by the organizer in the participation file. If the exhibitor considers that that value stated is not sufficient, he is requested to take care of the extra charges for under to be concluded with the organizer's insurer.

14-2: The coverage is exercised only on priority within the venue of the exhibition and exclusively during the opening of the event to the exhibitors.

14-3 Any claim can be reported only:

- with reference to the declaration of assets form signed by the exhibitor before the start of the event;
- within 24 hours, after the end of the organizer declares all its responsibility (*)

15-1- Badges, limitations and materials [Article 16]

15-1- For all events (trade shows and trade fairs), the stand managers are provided with name badges issued by the organizer that they must wear as long as they are on the scene of the event. Therefore the exhibitor is asked to submit to the organizer the list of names of those responsible for three (3) days at least before the opening of the event; however, it is possible to refer to the Sfax International Fair (held in the month of June) the presentation of badges that under no circumstances occur on the opening day and after the 4th day of the opening. ()

15-1-1- Protection of exhibition space [Article 17]

15-1-1- Throughout the course of an event (show or fair), it is strictly forbidden to:

- a) to pile up local collection and storage, in any way;
- b) to go beyond the size and height of the exhibition space allocated; exhibitors must not in any way obstruct the circulation on the site by the use of staircases, whose shapes, colors, volumes and surfaces are cumbersome or incompatible with the organization of the exhibition;
- c) to use the speakers or loudspeakers, or that might disturb the other participants and visitors; loudspeakers used on a stand must not in any case exceed the tolerance threshold of 40 decibels; the organizer is entitled to monitor for the duration of the event and in case of violation sum to the switching off the power supply and the seizure of the equipment;
- d) to distribute documents or releases that have nothing to do with the theme of the event.

At any breach of the above mentioned instructions a notice will be sent to the offender before the acceptance of goods until the end of the event in case of recurrence ().

15-1-1-1- Identification and evacuation of the stands [Article 18]

15-1-1-1- The stands must be dismantled and evacuated immediately after the closure by the exhibitor and under their responsibility of the items left in the time fixed by the organizer and indicated in the participation file.

15-1-1-1- However, the removal of products and materials storage, be made without an exit pass issued by the organizer after payment of the invoice due.

15-1-1-1- The evaluation of stands includes goods, articles, special decorations, as well as residual waste, materials and packaging used in the decoration, layout and equipment of stands; it must be completed by the exhibitors within the period allocated to them.

15-1-1-1- After the above-mentioned period, the organizer can store the objects in the exhibition space to a warehouse at his choice at the expense and risk of the exhibitor and without being held responsible for total or partial damage or loss. Any delay in the removal of the exhibits will result in storage costs, calculated from the expiry of the said period at €50 per day of delay.

15-1-1-1-1- Penalties [Article 20]

20-3-1- Penalties

Compliance with these general regulations by the exhibitor being irregular, any violation duly noted by the organizer may, at the discretion of the organizer, lead to, besides the application of special sanctions stipulated in the regulation, the closure of the stand of the offender; this is in particular in the following cases: all payment default, non-compliance with the arrangements, non-compliance with safety rules, no manual occupation and the presence of non-compliant products to the concept of manual trade, of its implementing regulations.
